

WETS CARRY LORAIN COUNTY

They Have a Majority of 35 Votes—
Anti-Saloon League Threatens to Contest the Election.

Columbus, O.—Returns received at the headquarters of the Ohio Anti-Saloon league show that Lorain county voted to retain the saloons by a majority of 35. There are 154 saloons in Lorain county and the campaign was one of the hottest waged up to this time. It was stated at the Anti-Saloon league headquarters that the election would be contested, if being claimed that 145 foreigners who had not been naturalized, were allowed to vote in one precinct at Lorain.

Lorain, O.—The greatest battle waged thus far in Ohio under the provisions of the law passed by the last Ohio legislature providing for county elections to decide whether or not saloons shall be allowed to exist came to an end Monday night when Lorain county went wet by a majority of 35. For three weeks the campaign has been going on, and on account of the number of saloons that would be forced to close if the "wets" were defeated, the result was awaited with interest all over the state.

The wet campaign lagged at first. The retail dealers were running it at the time under the authority of the Personal Liberty league. Dry strength, suddenly developed, threw the liquor interests into a panic. Nearly every great brewing concern in the country is represented in the county. These interests sent men to size up the situation. Their report was discouraging. Then the brewers held a council of war, formed the Lorain County Commercial association, and wet hopes grew brighter.

Rasor Has a Hearing in Court.

Medina, O.—Attorneys for Guy Rasor, placed on trial in a preliminary hearing here Monday charged with having murdered Orle Lee, his sweetheart, on a road near Wadsworth on the night of October 8, two days before they were to have been married, sought to show by testimony of the dead girl's father and her aunt that some other person than Rasor might have had cause to slay her. Through-out the entire testimony Rasor sat stolid and unmoved. He showed no emotion when Henry Lee, father of his sweetheart, told of the finding of her body with three bullets through the brain.

Shot a Girl and Suicided.

East Liverpool, O.—Driven to desperation because the young woman with whom he had kept company spurned his love and refused to have anything to do with him, James White, aged 25 years, upon meeting Miss Margaret Lisk, aged 19 years, on Monday fired three shots at her and then ended his life by firing a bullet into his head. Miss Lisk was shot through the right arm, but the wound is not serious. The second bullet went wild while the third passed through the coat of her brother, who was accompanying her to work.

Fatal Explosion in a Church.

Zanesville, O.—The explosion of a lighting plant in the basement of the First United Presbyterian church in the village of New Concord, ten miles east of this city, Sunday night, while services were in progress, will result in the death of Earl Coleman, aged 19. He was the janitor and when the lights went out he hurried into the basement just as the plant exploded. A heavy piece of metal struck him just back of the ear, fracturing his skull. The congregation was thrown into a panic, but no others were seriously hurt.

VISITS WITH UNCLE BY

A deaf mute recently gave $40 for a phonograph. A phonograph ought to be worth that to a deaf man.

There are folks who could pay the grocer more promptly if they didn't spend so much time paying old scores.

Many a bachelor would have been married long ago had he possessed sufficient capital to buy a diamond engagement ring.

"Life seems brighter in the morning," sings a Denver poet. That depends upon what a man has been doing the night before.

Some men don't go to the club evenings because their wives have a club for them at home. This is good either way you interpret it.

I am not in favor of women lawyers. After she had broken a few wills, it would be too easy for her to break the hearts of her successful clients.

A man can come home late, bang the screen door, fall over a chair and cuss volubly without waking his wife, provided he doesn't care if she hears him, but if he is trying to sneak in, he cannot crawl on his hands and knees softly enough to reach the bottom step of the stairway before she will pipe him in the dark!

In these days of ennuil an automobile helps because it provides an opportunity for the seeker of thrills to take chances. When he pulls at this, he stops at a saloon and gets drunk. Then he staggers out and runs the automobile. This combination either has the desired effect or kills the man—and a man might as well be dead now-a-days as not be entertained.

○ ○ ○
A Seer.

Oh, he sought to tell her fortune
As he lingered rather late,
While she blushed as rosy colored
As the embers in the grate!
Then he took her hand so dainty
And she felt her pulses thrill,
As he held it snug and tender
Very much against her will!

As the freight flashed and tickered,
He bent low above her palms—
Reading forecasts with a vision

"That was destitute of quality!"
"You will wed," he said, "next Christmas—"
Wed a dark man, tall and strong,
Who will love you and protect you—
Love you tenderly and long!

"And this bold, intrepid wooer,
Where is he?" the maiden cried.
"Just at present," said the prophet,
"He is sitting at your side!"
"Oh, I don't believe in fortunes!"
"The paper said, last Tuesday:
"They'll be married Christmas night!"
○ ○ ○

A New York woman married a light-house-keeper but later discovered that while he did light jobs, he expected her to do all the heavy work. One night while trimming the lamps, he became enraged at her and made it unanimous. Unlike the lamps, she went out. Now she is suing for divorce on the grounds that he is not a good light-house-keeper.

○ ○ ○
Dry and Hot.

A Missouri paper waits that it is so hot over there that horses have to stand in water an hour every day to keep their shoes from coming off and wagons are going around with their tongues out. The river bed is so dry it has to be sprinkled before you can go fishing. The cattish kicked up such a dust that it choked to death 15,000 cattle who were searching for a drink of water. The railroad set a pond on fire and burned up its wagon load of bull frogs. The ground is so dry and hard that car wash holes are being pulled up, sewed together and shipped to Texas for gas pipes.

○ ○ ○
Courtious.

Last spring we asked you to take time by the forelock and pay your back subscriptions to the Bugle before summer arrived. No attention was paid to this, so we now respectfully ask you to pay up your subscriptions before winter arrives.—Bingville Bugle.

○ ○ ○
Saving Money.

"Only seven days to October and hotter than the blazes of a bake oven," complains a Michigan editor. Don't get peevish, brother. Remember it will soon be time to print that notice about bringing in stamps on subscription!

Byron Williams

Streamers on Fans.

Among the accessories that are new in the shops are the fans of exquisite empire shapes in silk and chiffon or lace. Then there are less expensive ones of net, with dainty applique figures and a double or triple frill of lace across the top, and two long ribbon streamers floating from the handle. These streamers are quite a novelty and may be purchased separately as well as the fan rings. The former are in many fancy devices. Some are long ends of wide tulle, tied with satin ribbon. Others are wide ribbons, slashed and edged with fringe or lace. The fan rings are jeweled, or otherwise decorated, and are nothing more nor less than bracelets, more ornamental than serviceable.

Padding the Skirt.

With the skirts that have a center seam in front and that are cut to bang straight from a line three or four inches above the top of the waist, there is a pad attached just in front. It is made of cotton and is inclosed in the lining material, so that the inside of the skirt will be neat looking. It is about four inches long and two inches wide, and runs down the center seam directly over the waist line. It keeps the skirt from sinking in, which is always inartistic.

Amateurs do not always know this trick and they wonder why it is they cannot keep the center front of the skirt hanging in a perfectly straight line.

For Sale.

A lot of household goods, buggies, etc., will be sold at private sale at my residence on West Main St., Canfield. Come at once. LUCY HARTMAN.

ORNAMENT ON WRITING TABLE.

Combined Watch Stand and Memorandum Holder.

Our sketch illustrates a useful and very easily made little article, intended for standing on a writing table. It is always pleasant, while writing, to be able to keep an eye upon the time without turning round, perhaps, to look at the clock, and under those circumstances some kind of watch-stand becomes necessary; it is also very useful to have a holder for unused half-sheets of note-paper, and the little stand shown in our sketch answers both these purposes.

It is easily and simply made, and a piece of cardboard of the size indicated should be used for the foundation. This may be covered with any pretty piece of material that may be at hand and edged all round with a silk cord.

There is a support at the back, similar to that of an ordinary photograph frame, hinged on at the top with a piece of cloth. In the upper part of the front of the stand a large dress hook is sewn, and on this may be hung the watch. A little lower down a strap of elastic runs across, and over this the half-sheets of notepaper are folded and held in their place by the elastic. When one has been used, it is an easy matter to pull it off and expose the underneath sheet for further notes. To complete this little article, to the right hand side a pencil is attached by means of a fine silk cord.

EIGHT BOWS ON A HAT.

Quaint Arrangement That Has a Really Pretty Effect.

The round sailors, or those that are egg-shaped and intended for steady street wear, are trimmed with eight satin bows. This is a quaint arrangement, but does not look nearly as jumbled as it sounds.

Square bows, five inches long, with loops and ends of equal width, are made and attached to two rows of milliners' wire. This wire is cut the exact size of the crown, and when the bows are firmly attached too it is merely twisted together at the back.

The bows are not put on up and down, as a rule, although this would not be a bad departure to make from the original model. They are put on with loops and ends touching to form a complete crown band.

The beauty of it is that, being on the milliners' wire instead of the hat, they can be changed at will. All one has to do is to untwist the ends of wire at the back and lift off the row of bows. Another row in another color may be substituted.

Police Chief Is Suspended.

Dayton, O.—John C. Whittaker, chief of the Dayton police department and secretary-treasurer of the Ohio Police Chiefs' association from the time it was formed, was suspended Monday by Mayor Eckhardt pending a hearing before the board of safety on 12 charges, among which are intoxication while on duty, conduct unbecoming an officer and using profane

Immense Boss.
Whatever has been worn recently in neckwear was not as huge as what will be worn this winter. Tulle, feathers, marabou, and satin will make up immense pieces.

None of these are long. If they do not tie around the neck, at side or back, they hang only to the bust.

There does not seem to be any effort to make them wide enough to spread out over the shoulders. The tendency is to make them high and thick around the neck. Some of them reach to the brim of the hat at the back.

Irish Lace Flowers.

On many gowns that do not have any other kind of trimming there is often one large flower made of Irish crochet with several long pendants.

These are sold separately in the shops. They are placed on the front of the bodice or one on each sleeve at the waist or at the back of the belt. Simple as the trimming is, it is quite effective.

Not Worth It.
The Minister—I guess you made no mistake when you married that woman.

The Deacon—Oh, yes, I did.
"You did?"
"Yes; don't you remember I gave you ten dollars?"—Yonkers Statesman.

Quite Another Thing.
Mr. Jawback—Look here, you can't afford to wear such hats as that.

Mrs. Jawback—Why?
Mr. Jawback—I can't afford to pay for them, I say.
Mrs. Jawback—Oh, that's all right. I understood you to say I couldn't afford to wear them.—Cleveland Leader.

His Meal Ticket.

"Is that man you just bowed to your publisher?" asked the friend.
"Oh, no," replied the struggling poet; "that's my pawnbroker."—Chicago Daily News.

School is in session and now is the best time to enter. A business education will benefit your mind and pocketbook. Hundreds of our graduates are filling positions in this vicinity.

A postal card with your address will bring you information regarding tuition rates and courses of study. Write to

W. H. MATTHEWS, Principal,
Salem, Ohio.

—Patronize Dispatch advertisers.

THE STROUSS-HIRSHBERG CO.

Another Sale of
Hats at $3.50 and $5

Singular success attended our special sale of $3.50 and $5.00 Hats last week—so pronounced, indeed, that we again make the same offer for this week.

New Hats have been received and will be placed on sale at these prices.

Mainly true copies of expensive New York and Paris Pattern Hats—in all the good colors and shapes—regularly worth $5.00 and $8.00, at $3.50 and $5.00.

Selling Out the Original Pattern Hats

Unusual for so early in the season, but you know we do unusual things. You may choose any of our imported Pattern Hats—all of which are of the very highest grade of millinery—at just one-fourth off the regular price.

Opening Display and Special Sale of Furs

There'll be big doings in the Fur Section—our first Fall Special Sale and grand opening display at the same time on Thursday, Friday and Saturday

of this week. Further interest will be given the event by the fact that on these days we will have with us

MR. T. A. JOHNSON,

The Well Known New York Furrier

With his magnificent line of all sorts of rich furs. Special orders will receive Mr. Johnson's personal attention.

The Strauss-Hirshberg Co.,
YOUNGSTOWN, O.

A Great Silk Sale for the People of Youngstown by Euwers on the Square

EUWER

Special at Euwers' Candy Dep't
NOTICE!

If you are going to have a party at your home Halloween evening don't forget to get your pumpkin figures. We have the most complete line you ever seen at very low cost and the kind that won't set on fire!

15c Pumpkin Head ..... 10c
25c Pumpkin Head ..... 14c

A Big Purchase of Silks Brings the Choicest Fabrics to Euwers of Youngstown, Ohio

GREAT SILK SALE

This is to be a great silk year. Silks are beautiful and low in price. We have been in the New York market and secured some of the greatest values in silks that have been shown here, and will have one of the biggest silk sales ever in the city. You can come in all confidence as we have made extra exertions to have one of the finest displays and greatest sales we have ever made.

EUWER

At the Fairy Fountain
NOTICE!

Don't forget your ice cream for your party and social. Euwer makes ice cream that is made to eat. Give us one order and you will always come back, and don't ask you to pay for the name. Our prices are always the same. Ice cream delivered:
1 qt. 40c; 2 qt. 70c; 1 gal. $1.10; 2 gal. $2.15

The Great Value Shown Here for Twenty-nine Cents is Wonderful

29c 19 inch Pongee Taffeta in a good assortment of colors, waist silks in close line of colors in white and all the best grades, values that have sold all season at 50c; but we want to give extra values as a starter for this sale and we let them all out at 29c per yard.

The Most Beautiful Silks at 59c Shown This Season

59c 22 inch black taffeta and black messaline silks that always sell for 75c; Cheny Bros. foulards in brown, black and all colors in good grounds and swiss designs, they have sold as high as one dollar, fancy silks in brocade and two tone designs, rich all silk pongee and voiles up to one dollar a yard go for 59c a yard.

The Greatest Value Ever Shown in Silks

98c $2.00 Pompadour brocaded satin for fine linings and bags; Roman stripes, Persians and all the latest novelties for waists in 36 inch black peau de soie all silk, 36 inch taffeta in all colors, values $1.50 a yard and well worth it, but we want to show that the people do rule and make the prices.

We have made great preparations for this silk sale and want it to be the greatest silk sale we ever had. Never were such values shown and we know the people will come to the greatest silk sale ever held in the United States.

Now please remember we never advertise that which we cannot perform. Policy as well as principle holds us back from the foolish attempt to attract patronage by misleading announcements. You will find one of the greatest silk sales ever.

From the Big New York Silk Sale—Values that will not be met again

39c For thirty-nine cents a yard Pongees in dots and stripes, in navy, brown and Copenhagen. Rough cloth suitings in navy, brown and white. Good assortment of all silk colored taffeta that have sold at 75c; this is the greatest value in silks ever shown in this city; choice line of plaid silks, regular 65c quality bought for this sale and all to go for 39c. Best values in silks ever offered.

The Great Values for This Sale Is the Silk at 69c

69c Extra heavy novelties in Louisines and taffetas in checks and shadow plaids, 22 inch, heavy black peau de soie, 22 inch Clifton brand taffeta in black, all silk Liberty and Messaline in a complete line of colors, together with a 36 inch black Liberty that the true value is $1.25, all go at this sale for 69c a yard.

The Greatest Value of the Year for All New Silks—Come and See Them

48c Forty-eight cent silks. We are sending out at this price Roman stripe silks, new designs in navy, brown, grey, garnet, light blue and white. Lawns, swisses and taffeta dress silks in Pekin stripes and checks, full line of taffeta dress silks in all the best shades that have never sold less than 75c, will all go at 48c yd.

Here's Extra Value for the Price—Best Value Ever Shown for 89c

White, ivory and cream satin Duchess, 36 inch black Liberty, Crepe de Chine in ivory, pink and light blue, cream, black and lavender, all well worth up to $1.50 a yard. But down they go at this price—89c, just to show what we can do. The values are here and we want to give the people a chance to buy.

$2.50 Corsets $1.29 Sensational Sale

3000 Corsets Close to Half Price

Corsets—thousands of them—the world's most noted corset maker's premier model—a corset never known to sell for less than $2.50—think of it—on sale here this week at only $1.29—a clear saving of half. To introduce this remarkable corset in this section the maker made us a phenomenal price on a big lot, we grasped the opportunity, and here they are ready for your choosing—the grandest corset bargain ever announced in Youngstown.

It's the best model produced this season, extreme long hips, high bust, made of a superb quality batiste, richly trimmed with Bonnaz embroidery, strong web supporters, front and side, a genuine $2.50 corset, and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday it's yours for only $1.29. Everybody will come for them. Avoid the crowds by being early. As a corset it's perfect, as a bargain it's a wonder. Don't miss getting one or more of them.—Corset Department, Second Floor.

